The ABR® designation is the benchmark of excellence in buyer representation. This coveted designation demonstrates to peers and consumers a commitment to providing outstanding service to real estate buyers. The ABR® is awarded by the Real Estate Buyer's Agent Council (REBAC)—a subsidiary of NAR—to REALTORS® who meet the specified educational and practical experience criteria. This two-day ABR® designation course and one NAR elective course must be successfully completed in order to earn the ABR® designation.

Georgia Meacham is the owner of Georgia Meacham & Company. After almost 30 years in the real estate industry as a top producer with state and national leadership experience, she brings education opportunities to associations, brokerages, and agents around the country. From Alaska to New Jersey, she helps real estate agents build a better business.
