

Inventory has not kept up with demand.

See where the two lines split?

Home prices rose because of consumer demand vs. limited supply – not speculation as was the case a decade ago.

Boise Metro Population Trends and Estimated Growth

INVENTORY is needed at all price points, especially existing homes priced below $250,000.

Buyers and builders may begin looking at options throughout Canyon County and at the edges of Ada County.

For more stats and the full analysis, visit boirealtors.com/2016-residential-real-estate-market-report.

Source: Intermountain MLS as of January 12, 2017
Copyright © 2017 Boise Regional REALTORS®

Months Supply of Inventory in Canyon County 2015 compared to 2016

