

Here's what you can expect while getting set up with a BRR Membership!

Step 1: Membership Application

- Submit your online BRR application.
- You will receive a "Next Steps" email from BRR's Membership team containing your 9-digit National REALTOR® Database System (NRDS) number for Step 2's courses.
- PRO TIP: You will be able to join the IMLS once you have completed BRR Step 3.

NOTE: Within 72 hours, you can expect an email from the Membership team detailing next steps.

Step 2: Code of Ethics & Fairhaven

Courses to complete:

- The New Member Code of Ethics — Online for free through NAR.
- Fairhaven — Online for free through NAR.
- PRO TIP: These courses are required prior to membership activation. Once these courses are complete, upload the certificates of completion here:

Step 3: Payment & NMO

Upon receipt of your two certificates (from Step 2) received by BRR staff, they will:

- Call you to process your membership dues payment and complete activation.
- Register you for New Member Orientation (NMO) — This course is required to be completed within 60 days of membership activation.
- PRO TIP: Transferring REALTORS® are exempt from orientation, with submission of a Letter of Good Standing.

Step 4: IR & NAR

Once active with BRR:

- You will have access to forms through Idaho REALTORS® (IR) automatically.
- You can submit an online application with the IMLS. You can also sign up for a variety of programs, training, designations, and more through the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR).
- You are welcome to utilize the REALTOR® Trademark per NAR's guidelines in your printed and digital marketing.
